Course selection and freshers week B.A. American, British, and Canadian Studies (Winter 21/22)

1. Timetable: Please read the annotated course catalogue carefully to get an overview of the courses listed in the sample timetable https://uni-marburg.de/FrDes
2. Course selection, starts on September 7, 2021 and takes place via the online platform MARVIN (https://www.marvin.uni-marburg.de). A more detailed description of how to register for couses and a list of deadlines can be found on the departmental website www.uni-marburg.de/gAxZm
3. Please note you must have paid your semester fee and have been registered as a student for at least 10 days before you can register for classes.
4. Fresher's week (orientation) begins the week starting October 11, 2021. There will be a couple of appointments dedicated to time-table planning, help with basic questions related to studying as well as opportunities to get to know each other. Please check on the offerings of the Fachschaft 10! over at www.fachschaft10.wordpress.com They also offer help with creating timetables.
5. The general introductory session for first semester students in the B.A. American, British, and Canadian Studies will take place as an online event on October 12, 2021 at 19.00 (sharp). You will receive a link via e-mail (make sure to check your student e-mail account).

FAQs

- What do the numbers before the class titles mean. These are numbers used in MARVIN to identify the courses (Lehrveranstaltungen). They are not exam registration numbers.
- What does SWS mean? Semesterwochstunden is the time which you are required to present in class for a given course. You can find a glossary of terms for university at: https://uni-marburg.de/BYRyN
- Are the courses listed above sufficient to ensure that I can graduate after six semesters? Yes. Your entire course of studies has a total of 180 credits of work. You should take an average of 30 credits of work each semester. Don't overdo it in the first semester.
- What happens if I can't attend the time-tabling events? You can use the online course: ToDos im Studium: Durchstarten in Marburg https://uni-marburg.de/Vs6oG and make an appointment to attend office hours with your student advisor.

- Which exams do I have to take in my first semester? That information can be found in your module handbook. Usually, your course instructors will also give you an outline of what to expect in their course during the first session.

If you have questions that aren't answered here, please check out the B.A. American, British, and Canadian Studies website here: https://uni-marburg.de/JtCKW and the student advising Ilias group: https://uni-marburg.de/SdtZX If you can't find the answer to your question on the website or the Ilias group, you may contact your student advisor:
