

Key Qualification Module

“NAREM Summer School: Nature, Wealth & Power“

Instructor: Prof. Dr. Mohammad Reza Farzanegan

Language: English

Objective:

Students are exposed to lectures related to the keywords nature, wealth and power, and take part in academic discussions. They will be trained in theory, empirical methods and will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge. Additionally, the interaction of German and Iranian students will sharpen the understanding for cultural differences and increase intercultural competences.

Credits: 6 ECTS

Registration:

By E-mail to Mr Sven Fischer (narem@uni-marburg.de). Upon registration, please state your matriculation number, your degree program and your current term of study. Additionally, please register in Marvin (Code: LV-10-KON-004).

Methodology:

Students participate in the lectures and seminars of their own choice from the "Nature, Wealth & Power" Summer School 2018 ". Participation needs to be verified with a signature of a present professor (or Mr Sven Fischer) on the protocol sheet. In order to obtain 6 ECTS and a certificate of participation, students visit eight seminar sessions. Furthermore, students have to write a protocol of the visited sessions or alternatively take part in a group presentation during the event.
