

Natural Resource Management and Life Satisfaction Winter School

- Time: 19th of November to 3rd of December, 2016
- Place: Center for Near and Middle Eastern Studies (CNMS), Deutschhastr. 12, 35032 Marburg, Germany
- Program: Lectures and seminars related to the topic political economy of natural resource management
- Participants: Students, Professors and other academicians from Philipps-University Marburg, Tarbiat Modares University, University of Tehran, and Ferdowsi University of Mashhad
- Aims: Looking with an interdisciplinary approach at the topics political economy of natural resource management, Iranian economy, life satisfaction, and empirical research
- Benefits: Networking, improvement of intercultural competences, training of topics related to own studies, and certificate of participation

The participation is free of charge. Limited places available.
Registration is obligatory and open until 15th of November, 2016.

Further information and registration:

www.uni-marburg.de/narem

narem@uni-marburg.de

Cooperation partners:

Funding and support by:

Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst
German Academic Exchange Service

