Announcement of the Equal Opportunities Commission

The Equal Opportunities Commission encourages the participation of female M.Sc. students from the Department of Business Administration & Economics, who are interested in pursuing a Ph.D. in the Annual Meeting of the European Economic Association (EEA) in Cologne, August 27 – 31, 2018

The participation shall grant valuable insights into academic communication and offer opportunities for contacting and networking.

Interested candidates may apply by April 15 via email to gleikom@wiwi.uni-marburg.de, and have to provide a contemporary Transcript of Records and a motivation letter. The commission's decision will be made public latest May 15.

For the selected candidates, the commission takes over the costs for travel, accommodation and the participation fee, in accordance to the regulations concerning travels on official business.

The benefited students oblige themselves to write an experiential report, which may be published on the Equal Opportunities Commission's website.
