

Ravensburger Group is an international group of companies with a long tradition and established values. Our mission is "playful development", which we make tangible every day in our games, puzzles, arts & crafts products, with children and youth books and at our leisure park Ravensburger Spieleland. Become a part of our successful company and discover new challenging tasks and perspectives.

For the Ravensburger Group we are looking for you from the earliest possible date as

Working Student Strategic Assistance To Board (m/f/d)

Discover challenging tasks

- ▶ Supporting the Assistant to the Board with operational tasks such as analyzing XXX or the preparation of board meetings
- ▶ Participate in inter-divisional board projects whilst working together with international colleagues
- ▶ Independent preparation of business analysis reports to support the decision making of the company's CEO and CFO

These are your skills

- ▶ Currently studying for a masters degree preferably specializing in strategic management, business innovation or international business
- ▶ High integrity, reliability and entrepreneurial spirit
- ▶ Flexibility, independence and a collaborative and proactive personality
- ▶ Excellent knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel und PowerPoint
- ▶ Good written and spoken English skills and basic knowledge of German

This is your perspective

We offer you a varied, self-reliant and challenging job with many opportunities to take on responsibility. Bring your experience into our team and develop yourself professionally and personally together with us and the Ravensburger Academy.

We look forward to receiving your detailed application documents, which you should preferably send to us via our online-portal.

www.ravensburger-gruppe.de/karriere (<https://www.ravensburger-gruppe.de/de/karriere/index.html>)