

Temporal Sounds

26/08/2024– 30/08/2024
Philipps-Universität Marburg/Germany

Join us in Marburg and explore the deeply interwoven relationship between sound and time!

The summer school offers

- an online introductory session followed by a week on site
- hands-on workshops and artistic practice
- specific tools and methods to work with sound
- insights into the international field of soundscape research
- networking with others who work on/with sound(s)
- impulses to rethink own research questions/projects in terms of sound research
