

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	European Politics and Societies
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit points	6 CP
Level	Advanced
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module; compulsory elective module in the curriculum for incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • cite European policy with examples of institutions and actors, • explain selected theoretical approaches to policy in Europe, • explain the challenges in European societies and European integration using examples.
Content (topic and contents)	They will gain an overview of the history of European politics; relevant theoretical approaches, institutions and actors; as well as the role of the European Union and European states in the world. In the module, they will discuss current national social processes and European integration.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • lecture / seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Essay (18 000-20 000 characters), or oral group presentation (20 min) or portfolio (18 000-20 000 characters)
Grading	Module grading per § 30 AB (Bachelor), § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 60 h • Preparation and follow-up: 60 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Cultures and Society
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit points	6 CP
Level	Advanced
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module; compulsory elective module in the curriculum for incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • apply different definitions of culture, • explain methods of cultural studies research using examples, • describe the objective of research in cultural studies.
Content (topic and contents)	They will explore the research fields of cultural studies (ethnologies, anthropologies) using current research as examples. They will examine what is meant by “culture” in a cultural studies research approach and explore recent theoretical and methodological perspectives from the viewpoint of various disciplines.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • lecture / seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Essay (18 000-20 000 characters) or oral presentation (20 Min) oder guided tour (20 Min)
Grading	Module grading per § 30 AB (Bachelor), § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 60 h • Preparation and follow-up: 60 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Religion, Ethics and Philosophiy
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit points	12 CP
Level	Advanced
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module; compulsory elective module in the curriculum for incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> describe the main features of the research fields of religious studies and philosophy, apply religious studies and philosophical issues to current social developments.
Content (topic and contents)	The module will give them an insight into various subject areas and fields of research in religious studies and philosophy. Ethical issues are addressed from the perspectives of these subjects, as well as others; e.g., by examining ecological, social or gender-specific topics with regard to their ethical implications. They will also acquire knowledge of current issues in these subjects.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lecture / seminar 2 SWS Lecture / seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Seminar paper (25 000-30 000 characters) or Oral presentation (30 Min.) or translation (25 000-30 000 characters)
Grading	Module grading per § 30 AB (Bachelor), § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Attendance in classes: 120 h Preparation and follow-up: 180 h Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Conflict and Society
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit points	12 CP
Level	Advanced
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module; compulsory elective module in the curriculum for incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • evaluate and analyze different forms of conflict across disciplines, • present a specific empirical conflict in detail.
Content (topic and contents)	The module will offer them an overview of how conflict and society are handled in various disciplines. Using empirical examples of conflicts at all levels (local, national, international), they will learn about different conflict concepts and theories, as well as conflict management. They can also take part in a simulation game as an actor in a fictitious conflict.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lecture / seminar 2 SWS • Lecture / seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Seminar paper (25 000-30 000 characters) or oral presentation (30 Min.) or conflict analysis (25 000-30.000 characters)
Grading	Module grading per § 30 AB (Bachelor), § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 120 h • Preparation and follow-up: 180 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Gender and Society
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit Points	12 CP
Level	Advanced
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module; compulsory elective module in the curriculum for incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • cite basic approaches to gender studies/women's & gender studies, • reflect on the entanglement of politics and gender relations, • examine selected topics from perspectives of gender competence and the critical theory of gender.
Content (topic and contents)	In this module, they will receive an introduction to gender studies/women's & gender studies, including the exemplary analysis of gender-specific and gender-hierarchical problem constellations. In addition, they will examine power, domination and social inequality in the context of gender hierarchies and gender constructs or gender democracy and gender emancipation.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lecture / seminar 2 SWS • Lecture / seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Seminar paper (25 000-30 000 characters) or oral group presentation (30 Min.) or debate club (30 Min.)
Grading	Module grading per § 30 AB (Bachelor), § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 120 h • Preparation and follow-up: 180 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Global Studies
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit points	12 CP
Level	Advanced
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module; compulsory elective module in the curriculum for incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • cite the foundations of international relations, • describe the interaction between globalization and local processes, • reflect critically on globalization and its players at the international and local level.
Content (topic and contents)	The interactions between global and local or social and cultural processes are the focus here, along with an introduction to political science analyses of international politics. Participants develop a critical perspective on globalization, its actors and consequences.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lecture / seminar 2 SWS • Lecture / seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Seminar paper (25 000 - 30 000 characters) or oral presentation (30 Min)
Grading	Module grading per § 30 AB (Bachelor), § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 120 h • Preparation and follow-up: 180 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h