

pp. 1.-4: Modules available for the international mobility of students earning the M.A. in sociology: Social Orders in Transition.

pp. 5-6: Modules that are available only for the international mobility of students earning other M.A. degrees.

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Soziologie (MA) Global I – study abroad Sociology (MA) Global I – study abroad
Module responsibility	Sonja Veelen
Credit points	6 CP
Level	In-depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	None
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Profile and export module
Qualification objectives (skills)	After completing this module, students will have acquired in-depth knowledge in the fields of sociology and methods. The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program.
Content (topic and contents)	The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program, which is why the foreign university determines the content.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	Per the host university
Teaching and learning form	Per the host university
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Portfolio (ca. 36.000 characters/20 pages)
Grading	Grades from the host university will be converted based on the specifications of the examination committee.
Amount of work	180 hours

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Soziologie (MA) Global II – study abroad Sociology (MA) Global II – study abroad
Module responsibility	Sonja Veelen
Credit points	6 CP
Level	In-depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	None
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Profile and export module
Qualification objectives (skills)	After completing this module at an international partner university, students will have acquired in-depth knowledge of sociology that is not offered at Philipps-Universität Marburg. Analyzing new topics in an international environment also promotes students' intercultural skills.
Content (topic and contents)	The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program, which is why the foreign university determines the content.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	Per the host university
Teaching and learning form	Per the host university
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Portfolio (ca. 36.000 characters/20 pages)
Grading	Grades from the host university will be converted based on the specifications of the examination committee.
Amount of work	180 hours

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Soziologie (MA) International I – study abroad Sociology International I (MA) – study abroad
Module responsibility	Sonja Veelen
Credit points	6 CP
Level	In-depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	None
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Profile and export module
Qualification objectives (skills)	After completing this module, students will have acquired further knowledge in the fields of sociology and methods that serve as a useful complement to the major chosen at Philipps-Universität Marburg. This module will be hosted by a foreign partner university.
Content (topic and contents)	The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program, which is why the foreign university determines the content.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	Per the host university
Teaching and learning form	Per the host university
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Portfolio (ca. 36.000 characters/20 pages)
Grading	Grades from the host university will be converted based on the specifications of the examination committee.
Amount of work	180 hours

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Soziologie (MA) International II – study abroad Sociology International II (MA) – study abroad
Module responsibility	Sonja Veelen
Credit points	6 CP
Level	In-depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	None
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Profile and export module
Qualification objectives (skills)	After completing this module, students will have acquired in-depth knowledge in the field of sociology with reference to the social order of the country in which they are studying abroad.
Content (topic and contents)	The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program, which is why the foreign university determines the content.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	Per the host university
Teaching and learning form	Per the host university
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Portfolio (ca. 36.000 characters/20 pages)
Grading	Grades from the host university will be converted based on the specifications of the examination committee.
Amount of work	180 hours

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Social Sciences (MA) International I – study abroad
Module responsibility	Sonja Veelen
Credit points	6 CP
Level	In-depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	None
Duration of the module	One to two semester(s)
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module
Qualification objectives (skills)	After completing this module, students will have acquired in-depth knowledge in the field of social sciences. The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program.
Content (topic and contents)	The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program, which is why the foreign university determines the content.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	Per the host university
Teaching and learning form	Per the host university
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Portfolio (ca. 36.000 characters/20 pages)
Grading	Grades from the host university will be converted based on the specifications of the examination committee.
Amount of work	180 hours

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Social Sciences (MA) International II – study abroad
Module responsibility	Sonja Veelen
Credit points	6 CP
Level	In-depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	None
Duration of the module	One to two semester(s)
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module
Qualification objectives (skills)	After completing this module at an international partner university, students will have acquired in-depth knowledge of the social sciences that is not offered at Philipps-Universität Marburg. Analyzing new topics in an international environment also promotes students' intercultural skills.
Content (topic and contents)	The module is implemented as part of the study abroad program, which is why the foreign university determines the content.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	Per the host university
Teaching and learning form	Per the host university
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Portfolio (ca. 36.000 characters/20 pages)
Grading	Grades from the host university will be converted based on the specifications of the examination committee.
Amount of work	180 hours