

Election Board for the 2026 Election of the Representative Body for Severely Disabled Employees for Philipps-Universität Marburg (Departments 01–21) including non-departmental units and the Marburg School of Archival Studies

Marburg, 10.09.2026
Issued on: 29.09.2026

Election Notice

The following individuals have been appointed to the Election Board responsible for conducting the election of the Representative Body for Severely Disabled Employees:

1. Stefanie Wörenkämper (Chairperson)
2. Anita Fischer (Deputy Chairperson)
3. Stefan Häuser (Deputy Chairperson)

Appointed as substitute members: Alisa Riehl and Stefan Rösel

At its meeting on 10 September 2026, the Election Board adopted the following election notice:

The term of office of the current joint Representative Body for Severely Disabled Employees of Philipps-Universität (Departments 01–21, including non-departmental units) and the Marburg School of Archival Studies expires on 30 November 2026.

Pursuant to § 177 Para. 1 Sentence 1 of the Social Code Book IX (SGB IX) – Rehabilitation and Participation of Disabled Persons – in its current version, and by resolution of the Election Board, the following are to be elected:

one Representative (Trustee) and up to 6 Deputy Representatives

The regular term of office for the Representative Body for Severely Disabled Employees is four years, in accordance with § 177 Para. 5 in conjunction with Para. 7 SGB IX.

Eligible for election as the Representative for Severely Disabled Employees and as their deputies - pursuant to § 177 Para. 3 SGB IX - are all people employed at the agency on a non-temporary basis who have reached the age of 18 by election day and have been part of the agency for six months. Individuals who are legally barred from serving on the staff council are ineligible for election (in the university sector, this applies to university professors).

The electoral roll and the election regulations pursuant to SGB IX (SchwVWO) are available for inspection at the office of the Election Board: Biegenstr. 10, Room 03003, 35037 Marburg.

All severely disabled persons - including those with equivalent status - employed at the agency and listed on the electoral roll are eligible to vote. This also includes all non-academic staff members who are represented by the Representative Body for Severely Disabled Employees under the cooperation agreement between the university and the Marburg University Hospital (Section 16 in conjunction with Appendix 13.2).

Objections to the electoral roll must be submitted in writing to the office of the Election Board at Biegenstr. 10, Room 03003, 35037 Marburg.

The deadline for submitting objections is October 14, 2026.

In accordance with Section 177 (6) of the Social Code Book IX (SGB IX), the election will be conducted based on the principles of majority voting (election of individuals).

The Representative and the Deputy Representatives are to be elected in separate ballots. Nomination proposals must clearly indicate who is being nominated as the Representative and who is being nominated as a Deputy Representative.

Eligible voters may sign nomination proposals for both the election of the Representative and the election of the Deputy Representatives. A candidate may be nominated for both the position of Representative and the position of Deputy Representative.

Severely disabled persons at Philipps-Universität and the Archivschule Marburg are hereby requested to submit appropriate nomination proposals to the Election Board.

The deadline for submission is October 14, 2026.

Each nomination proposal must be signed by one-twentieth of the eligible voters - that is, at least 13 eligible voters. Nomination proposals must include the candidate's surname, first name, date of birth, type of employment, and, where applicable, their department or place of work. The written consent of the candidate must be attached to the nomination proposal.

Voting is tied to the nomination proposals. Only those nomination proposals submitted to the Election Board by the deadline - i.e., no later than may be considered. The valid nominations shall be announced to persons with severe disabilities in the same manner as this election notice. Pursuant to Section 11, Paragraph 2 of the Election Regulations, the Election Board has decided to conduct the vote via postal ballot. The necessary voting materials will be sent to eligible voters at their private addresses in good time, without the need for a specific request.

The postal ballot must be received at the Election Board's office, Biegenstr. 10, Room 03003, 35037 Marburg no later than 3:30 p.m. on November 16, 2026.

The vote count and the determination of the election result will take place during a public session on November 16, 2026, starting at 3:30 p.m. in the building at Biegenstr. 10, 2nd floor, meeting room 02008.

Objections regarding the list of eligible voters, the submission of nominations, and other declarations must be submitted to the Election Board's office at Biegenstr. 10, Room 03003, 35037 Marburg. All deadlines expire at 3:30 p.m. on the specified day.
