

Aktionstag Feminisms in Latin America #4GenderStudies

In the context of the Aktionstag #4GenderStudies, the Gender Center brings to you a presentation by Yuderkys Espinosa Miñoso titled Have you heard? The decolonization of feminism has been underway for sometime now. The Afro-Caribbean theorist will talk about the decolonial turn in feminism: the decolonization of feminism, its roots, contributions and critiques.

Wednesday, 15th of December, 2021 from 18:00 to 20:00 (German time)

The presentation will take place in Spanish with English translation.

Access link: <https://webconf.hrz.uni-marburg.de/b/ali-hzz-5m8-zkw>

Biography

Yuderkys Espinosa Miñoso is a candidate for a PhD in philosophy from the University of Buenos Aires. Afro-Caribbean anti-racist and decolonial theorist, teacher, researcher and popular educator. One of the forerunners and main exponents of anti-racist and decolonial feminism in Latin America and the Caribbean. Her main contributions advance towards a criticism of the colonality of feminist reason. Independent professor and researcher, she is a frequent guest of universities, organizations and social movements in Latin America, the USA and Europe.

She is founding member of the Grupo Latinoamericano de Estudios, Formación y Acción Feminista (GLEFAS) and Junta de Prietas. Recent publications: “Decolonial Feminism: New theoretical-methodological contributions more than a decade on” (Editorial Abya Yala, 2019); “Decolonial Feminism in Abya Yala: Caribbean, Meso, and South American. Contributions and Challenges”, co-edited with María Lugones and Nelson Maldonado-Torres (Rowman and Littlefield, forthcoming 2022).

*For further questions relate to this event, please do not hesitate to contact:
Alina de Luna Aldape
alina.delumaaldape@uni-marburg.de*