Welcome Reception

for International Doctoral Candidates and Scholars
November 03, 2023

INTERNATIONAL OFFICE

Dear international doctoral candidates and scholars,

On behalf of the city of Marburg and the University of Marburg, the International Office would like to invite you and your families to this year's international welcome reception in the old town hall.

Meet other new researchers from across the university over coffee, pastries and refreshments, and learn more about the historic city of Marburg by joining us for a guided tour after the reception.

Please contact our staff for registration and more information.

welcome@uni-marburg.de

Registration closes October 27, 2023.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the reception!
