

LET'S TALK ABOUT CONFLICT

Universität
Marburg

Center Colloquium

winter term 2025

The Colloquium facilitates conversations about the research of members and guests of the Center for Conflict Studies. All university members, including students, are welcome to attend.

Meetings take place on Mondays on the specified dates in room +2/0140 at Ketzerbach 63.

Pia Falschebner, Johanna Kocks and Miquel Pellicer are organising the event this semester.

20. October 2025

A Feminist Inquiry on the Impact of the Au pair Arrangement on Gender Justice and Equality in Europe: The Case of German Women and African Female Au pair
Ireen Mudeka
Without Trust, Nothing Works: Re-Centering Trust in PCVE Efforts
Violette Mens

10. November 2025

The Long Shadow of Colonial Violence Against LGBTQ+ Kenyans
Mariel Reiss & Āryā Jeipea Karijo
Financial Interests, Social Economic Backgrounds and German MPs Tax Policy Positions
Lukas Rädle

08. December 2025

Ascribing Responsibility: Exploring a Narrative-Based Typology Across Contexts of Violence and State Repression
Kristine Andra Avram
Analyzing "Governed Agency" in Global Governance: Organized Working Children and Habitus Change in Child Protection
Nadine Benedix

19. January 2026

Bodies in Exile: an Approach to Social Reconciliation from an Art-Based Methodology
Catherine Sophia Castellanos Montenegro
Wealth Bias in Tax Policy-Making: An Assessment of Election Promises and Actual Tax Policies in Selected Countries
Ibrahim Kuran, Miquel Pellicer & Eva Wegner

09. February 2026

Negotiating Transnational Memories and Migration between Miami and Havana
Myriell Fußer
"Getting the Band Back Together": Explaining Repeat Foreign Fighters in Ukraine
Joshua Farrell-Molloy

Center for Conflict
Studies