

Let's talk about conflict

Forschungskolloquium des Zentrums für Konfliktforschung
Sommersemester 2019

29.4

Werner Distler (Center for Conflict Studies): Politics of Security or Politics versus Security in International Statebuilding?

Julius Heise (Center for Conflict Studies): “Give Unification or We Perish” — Securitization of the Ewe and Togoland: Unification Problem under United Nations Trusteeship (1946-1960)

13.5

Philipp Schultheiß (Center for Conflict Studies): Soldiers Reacting to Transitional Justice Mechanisms: the Case of Former Soldiers of the National People's Army

Miriam Tekath (Center for Conflict Studies): “Little Security Nothings” and Everyday Conflicts: the Securitization of the French Language in Québec

27.5

David Mwambari (Ghent University): Prayers, Commemorations and the Politics of Unity in Northern Uganda

Anna-Lena Hönig (Mannheim University): Shrinking Spaces or New Opportunities? NGO Cooperation in Kazakhstan

24.6

Alexandra Engelsdorfer (Center for Conflict Studies): Reality or Utopia? Theoretical Considerations on In-Between Spaces

Carmen Lienen (Social Psychology): Social Representations of history and nationhood in times of political change

8.7

Susanne Buckley-Zistel & Anne Menzel (Center for Conflict Studies): Redressing Sexual Violence in Truth Commissions: the Labelling of Women as Victims and its Social Repercussions

Stefanie Bock (International Research and Documentation Center for War Crimes Trials): Individuelle Verantwortlichkeit für kollektive Gewalttaten - Überlegungen zur strafrechtlichen Sanktionierung des Angriffskrieges

12 Uhr s.t. in Raum 00/1010 in der
Deutschhausstr. 3