

LET'S TALK ABOUT CONFLICT

Center Colloquium winter term 2026

Marburg
University

The Colloquium facilitates conversations about the research of members and guests of the Center for Conflict Studies. All university members, including students, are welcome to attend.

Meetings take place on Mondays on the specified dates in room +2/0140 at Ketzerbach 63 from 12:00 to 2:00 p.m. sharp.

Sophie Falschebner and Lam-Phuong Nguyễn Pham are organising the event this semester.

12 October 2026

*Who Gets to Know?
Activist and Scholarly Perspectives in LGBTIQ+ Studies*
Mariel Reiss

What We (Do Not Usually) Dare to Say: Reconsidering Uncertainty and Fear in Field Research
Pia Falschebner

9 November 2026

Listening to the 'German Dream': Researching Asylum Migration from Türkiye to Germany
Zekiye Gürün-Üçem

*Trading Privacy for Peace?
Violent Conflict & Support for Government Surveillance in Nigeria
& the Broader African Context*
Daniel Tuki

14 December 2026

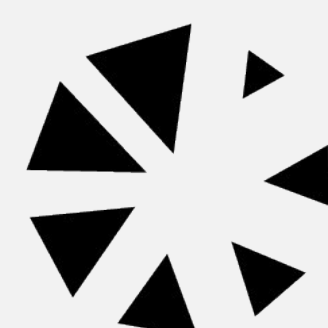

*Facing Learned
Helplessness Together:
When Care Doesn't Feel Soft*
Lam-Phuong Nguyễn Pham

Emotions as Analytical Tools in Ethnographic Research on the Far Right
Julia Leser

1 February 2027

*Emotions and Reflexivity in Ethnographic Research: Everyday
(In)Security among (LBT) Women
Social Leaders in Colombia*
Elisabeth Winterer

*What Does Anger Make (In)Visible?
Reflections on Researching Violence and Impunity*
Andra Avram

Center for Conflict
Studies