

(RE)THINKING TIME AND TEMPORALITIES IN PEACE AND CONFLICT

Zentrumstage 2020

October 29-31

PROGRAM

Philipps

Universität
Marburg

CENTER FOR CONFLICT
STUDIES

CENTER
FOR CONFLICT
STUDIES

ZENTRUMSTAGE
2020

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 2020

14:00-16:15 Opening Ceremony
Keynote I – Natascha Mueller-Hirth (Aberdeen)
Moderator: Susanne Buckley-Zistel

16:15-17:00 Virtual Coffee Break

17:00-18:30 Panel I and II

Rethinking Linearity

Chair: Thorsten Bonacker (Marburg)

- Susanne Buckley-Zistel (Marburg)
Time and Temporality
- Sandra Rios Oyola (Louvain)
Dignification and the Teleology of Transitional Justice
- Christina Pauls (Augsburg)
Peaces that frame our extended Present
- Ana Leticia Soares (Hamburg)
The Kinetics of Security:
Deconstructing Temporal Linearity
Perspectives to Understand the Securitization Theory

Multiple Temporalities in Conflict

Chair: Anika Oettler (Marburg)

- Julie Bernath (Marburg)
Multiple temporalities and questions of timing and sequencing: reflections on transitional justice in the Syrian context
- Venera Kusari (Yangon)
Understanding Myanmar's
Internal Conflicts through the Lens of Time
- Obinna Nweke (Otago, NZ)
The Dawn of National Reintegration: Time and Reintegration in the aftermath of the Nigerian-Biafra War

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30, 2020

09:30-11:00 Panel III and IV

Timing and Contexts

Chair: Astrid Juckenack (Marburg)

- Joana Amaral (Marburg)
A Public Timing? Confidentiality and Public Communication in the Colombian Peace Negotiations
- Bertie Kangoya (Marburg)
The time of History and Memory in Zimbabwe: Multi-layered Healing and Reconciliation Challenges for 2nd Generation Victims
- Felix Schulte (Heidelberg)
Trigger Events, Emotional Climates, and Cascades of Cultural Identity Conflicts

11:00-11:30 Virtual Coffee Break

11:30-13:00 Panel V and VI

Political Temporalities

Chair: Alexander Veit (Marburg)

- Filip De Maesschalck (Antwerp)
Statebuilding support to post-conflict states. A temporal analysis of the interplay between European engagement and domestic legitimization mechanisms throughout the 2015 electoral cycle in Burundi
- Werner Distler (Marburg)
Time is running out. Temporal contestations and conflicts on sovereignty in territorial administration
- Andrea Carolina Jaramillo Contreras (Marburg)
Contrasting Temporalities between the Reincorporation Policies and the everyday of FARC-EP ex-combatants in Colombia: A Matter of Power and Synchronicity

Temporalizing Transition

Chair: Alexandra Engelsdorfer (Marburg)

- Tine Destrooper & Marit De Haan (Ghent)
Resuming adjourned ongoingness: The temporality of rupture, transition and continuity in Chile
- Mariam Salehi (Marburg)
Transitional justice, constitution making, and conflicting temporalities in transitional Tunisia
- Ingrid Samset (Leiden)
Temporalising transition

The Presence of Violent Pasts

Chair: Timothy Williams (Munich)

- Kristine Avram (Marburg)
Reconstructing Past Violence and State Repression in Romania: Polychronic Storytelling in Narratives of Former Securitate Officers
- Emily Mannheimer (Rotterdam)
Navigating (post)conflict timescapes: Game of Thrones tourism and the “new” Belfast
- Samira Marty (Oslo)
“This April Never Again”: diverging temporalities between Free Nicaragua-activists in Berlin
- Gustavo Rojas Páez (Bogota) & Colleen O'Brien (Jena)
Conflict temporalities and indigenous victimhood narratives within Colombia’s turbulent transition

13:00-14:30 Lunch Break

14:30-16:00 Panel VII and VIII

Time and Temporalities in IR

Chair: Julius Heise (Marburg)

- Maria Ketzmerick (Bayreuth)
Colonial Continuities in Secessionist Conflicts: The Anglophone Question as a Threat to Security in Cameroon
- Eric Sangar (Lille)
Comparing 'regimes of historicity' in media discourses on wars and interventions

Temporalities in Resistance and Activism

Chair: Irem Aki (Marburg)

- Helene Marie Abiraad (Brighton)
Temporalities of Peace and Violence in Beirut: Exploring
Urban Activists' Narratives
- Lidewyde Berckmoes
& Anonymus Author (Leiden)
Deep-seated violence: A temporally staged perspective on the escalation and progression of conflict following the 2015
political protests in Bujumbura,
Burundi
- Laura Kotzur (Marburg)
Archiving Resistance - Resisting
Archives

16:00-16:45 Virtual Coffee Break

16:45-18:15 Fishbowl: Conflict generations and generational conflict

- Pia Falschebner (Marburg)
- Tareq Sydiq (Marburg)
- Miriam Tekath (Marburg)
- Dariusz Zifonun (Marburg)

18:15-18:45 Time for Exchange

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2020

09:30-11:00 Panel IX and X

Relational Temporalities in Practising Peace

Chair: Stéphane Voell (Marburg)

- Melanie Hussak (Koblenz-Landau)
We are all related - Relational Temporalities of the Peace Ride
Dakota 38
- Andrea Nicolas (Berlin)
Time as a weapon, time for peace: Interethnic peacefare of elders (Ethiopia)
- Anne Stein (Lund)
Agonistic peace in the streets: The potential of protest as an agonistic practice in Colombia

Carriers of Memory

Chair: Eva Willems (Marburg)

- Hyun Gyung Kim (Berlin)
The Chronopolitics of the Representation of the Post-Memory Generation on "Comfort Women"
- Nadiya Kiss (Gießen)
Time and mythical timeliness in female stories and fiction about Russian-Ukrainian War in Donbas
- Philipp Schultheiss (Marburg)
Material Objects as Facilitators for Time Travel: Aspects of Memorialization in the German Security Sector Reform after 1990

11:00-11:30 Virtual Coffee Break

11:30-13:00 Closing Keynote – Annick Wibben (Stockholm):
"Feminist Narratives of Peace & War: Conceptualizing Violence as Continua"
Moderator: Thorsten Bonacker

13:00-13:30 Closing Remarks

Image: Pixabay

