

NaDiMa Workshop I
Natural Disaster Management: Lessons from Iran
10-11 October 2022
Lecture Hall +1/1090, Building F04, Deutschhausstr. 3,
Philipps-Universität Marburg, Germany

Day 1 (10 Oct)

10:00) „Do Sanctions Mean Disaster? Updated Evidence from Iran “

Mohammad Reza Farzanegan,
Philipps-Universität Marburg, CNMS

10:30) “The Social and Cultural Effects of the Corona Pandemic in Iran”

Zoreh Anvari,
University of Tehran

11:00) „Privatization of Public Education in Iran; Trend and Typology During Four Decades After the Islamic Revolution “

Reza Omid,
University of Tehran

11:30) Coffee Break (Room 00A02, CNMS)

12:00) „Anthropological Approaches to Disaster and Hazards, with Examples from Iran“

Mehrdad Arabestani,
University of Tehran

12:30) „Sand Encroachment in Iranian Railway Network “

Ali Tavili
University of Tehran

Day 2 (11 Oct)

9:00) “Earthquake Hazard in Iran, Concepts and Risk Reduction”

Attieh Eshaghi,
Iranian Strong Motion Network

09:30) “Iran Strong Motion Network, Its Roles In Earthquake Risk Reduction Programs”

Esmail Farzanegan,
Iranian Strong Motion Network

10:00) „Design of Earthquake Rapid Response System for Major Cities in Iran“

Mohammad P. Shahvar,
Iranian Strong Motion Network

10:30) Coffee Break (Room 00A02, CNMS)

11:00) “Overview of Sand and Dust Storm in Iran: Causes and Effects, Vulnerability Assessment to Manage Hot-Spot Area”

Aliakbar Nazari Samani and Marziyeh Haji Mohammadi
University of Tehran

12:00) „Nighttime Light Development After the 2003 Bam Earthquake In Iran: A Synthetic Control Analysis“

Sven Fischer,
Philipps-Universität Marburg, CNMS

12:30) Wrap-Up of Workshop

