

International Workshop

Theorizing Methodology in the MENA: Questions on Fieldwork and Knowledge Production in Contexts of Violence, Surveillance and Fear

PROGRAM

Date: 6-7 October 2016

Workshop Venue: Centre for Near and Middle East Studies (CNMS),
Philipps-Universität Marburg (PUM)

Thursday 06.10.2016

09:00 – 09:30 Registration

09:30 – 11:00 Opening Session (Achim Rohde and Helena Nassif)

Mapping Exercise (Andre Weißenfels)

11:00 – 11:30 Coffee Break

11:30 – 13:00 Roundtable I

The Researcher Under Suspicion: Emotional and Conceptual Framings

Muzna Al-Masri – The Arab Council for the Social Sciences (ACSS)

Ramy Aly – American University of Cairo (AUC)

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch Break

14:00 – 18:00 Hannah Arendt Walk and Coffeehouse Workshop

Bashir Saade – University of Stirling

Andre Weißenfels – Freie Universität Berlin

Helena Nassif – Philipps-Universität Marburg

19:00 Dinner

Thursday 07.10.2016

09:00 – 10:30 Roundtable II

Violence as an Epistemic Experience

Hayder Al-Mohammad - University of Wisconsin-Madison

Lamia Moghnieh – The Arab Council for the Social Sciences (ACSS)

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee Break

11:00 – 12:30 Roundtable III

Representations of Violence

Omar Dahi – Hampshire College

Ilka Eickhof – The Netherlands-Flemish Institute in Cairo (NVIC)

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch Break

14:00 – 15:30 Roundtable IV

Surveillance, Space and Violence

Sanaa Alimia – Freie Universität Berlin

Zina Sawaf – Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies Geneva

15:30 – 16:00 Coffee Break

16:00 – 17:00 Roundtable V

Ethical and Practical Considerations

Anne-Linda Amira Augustin – Philipps-Universität Marburg

Toufic Haddad – Birzeit University

17:00 – 18:30 Wrap Up Session

19:00 Dinner