

Where to go if Problems arise

A presentation of the Student Council Maths & Informatics

How am i affected

- It is no sign of weakness to ask for help
- Discrimination can target everyone
- No one knows what might happen in the future

Study advice

Zentrale Allgemeine
Studienberatung (ZAS)

Students CouncilFB12

Student Secretariat

Academic advisors of the department

Service center for disabled students

Career Center & Marburg
University Research Academy
(MARA)

General Student Committee
(AStA)

Center for Teacher Training
(ZfL)
Teachers only

Studentenwerk

Marburger Student phone

Bild vom Eingang der Mensa

Bild vom Asta - Gebäude

In case of discrimination during studies

Anti-Discrimination Office for Students

Complaint management for students

Office of the Women's and Equal Opportunities Officer

Women's representative

Council of Trust against Sexual Harassment and Violence

Students with child

Babysitter exchange

Daycare centers of the Studentenwerks

Department VI Section VI A 6: Family Services

Need for money

Parents first point of contact

- In Germany: Right for support

Working

- up to 20h/Week during the semester

Bafög-Amt

- Only half to be repaid and mini-jobs still possible (for Germans)

Scholarship

- Promote performance, commitment, social situation and more

Student loans

- Please don't

Mental health problems

Psychotherapeutic counseling center

Psychotherapeutic outpatient clinic (PAM)

Central General Student Advisory Service
(ZAS)

Psychotherapists Marburg (PSYMA)

Bild vom zwei Enten, die auf einem Bürgersteig sitzen